Sunday mornings - The heart of our life together

8:45 Nursery Care begins (5 & under)

9:00 Sunday School for all ages

10:00 Worship for all ages, followed by refreshments

10:15 Children's Program (2nd and 4th Sundays)

November 6, the 32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time and All Saints Day Sunday. Following our Mission Breakfast at 8:30am, we will celebrate the saints among us with Holy Communion and honoring the Immanuel Church members who have died since All Saints Day 2010. Scripture readings include Amos 5:18-24, Psalm 70 and Matthew 25:1-13. The Immanuel Horn Section will offer our Postlude, as "The Saints Go Marching In!"

November 13, the 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time. Guest preacher, United Methodist Lay Minister Dick Creek, along with members of our Spiritual Council, will lead worship while Pastor Anne is out of town.

November 20, Thanksgiving and Faith-Promise Sunday. On this day of gratefulness, our Deacons will lead us in a new tradition of making a commitment to God regarding our giving. During worship, members and friends will be invited to dedicate their Faith-Promise cards, as a response to God's generosity in each of our lives (see page 4, for details). Scripture readings include Ezekiel 34:11-16, Psalm 100 and Matthew 25:31-46. A congregational meeting to review the 2012 budget will follow worship.

November 27, First Sunday in Advent. In contrast to the commercial world around us, we begin the season of Advent slowly with a bare Sanctuary and the lighting of the First Advent Candle. Our scripture readings reflect this quiet and thoughtful mood as we prepare our hearts for Jesus' birth. Texts include Isaiah 64:1-9, Psalm 80 and Mark 13:24-37. We will also baptize Phoebe Elzey, daughter of Melissa and Dennis, and will dedicate our Thank Offering Boxes to benefit Hoffman Home for Youth. Greening of the church, following worship.

A “hire” and a “call” are different!

Your newly elected Pastoral Search Committee had their first formal gathering on Sunday afternoon, October 9. They met with our Central Atlantic Conference Minister, The Rev. Dr. John Deckenback, who gave an overview of the search process and an introduction to the Church Profile that the committee will assemble to share with potential clergy candidates. He reminded the group about the differences between an Interim Search Committee process (which hired me as Interim Pastor) and a Pastoral Search Committee (which will present one candidate to the congregation who will then call a new settled Pastor). A pastoral call involves levels of trust and commitment that differ from normal hiring practices in the business world. The call process involves not only human decision-making but an openness to the movement of God’s Spirit among us.

The Central Atlantic Conference (UCC) office sent the Interim Search Committee a list of 6 candidates, which the group reviewed, interviewed and finally recommended me for a vote by the Church Council. The larger Pastoral Search Committee(PSC) will spend a much longer time with their process and much needs to be done before they consider specific candidates. They will first spend time getting to know each other’s faith perspectives and ways that they each work in groups. They then will design and conduct a survey among the congregation. This survey will focus on your vision for the future at Immanuel and what kind of leadership you need to help you move into these future ministries. From the survey, your Church Profile will be completed, which will include these findings as well as your church history, financial status and setting here in Dorchester County.

Once the Church Profile is completed, notice of the Pastor’s position opening will be electronically posted on the United Church of Christ website <http://www.ucc.org/classifieds/pdfs/ucem.pdf>. The PSC will then begin receiving “rolling batches” of electronic Clergy Profiles (resumes) to review. At this point I will remove myself from the process, so as to not influence the PSC’s decisions. As these Clergy Profiles arrive, the PSC will read through the clergy profiles (each about 30 pages!), and stay in communication with candidates who are of interest. They will then conduct phone interviews, go hear candidates preach and finally conduct face-to-face interviews. I will be available to speak with final candidates regarding my experiences as your Interim Pastor, if the candidates and PSC so desire. The PSC has agreed to operate on a consensus model, whereby they all need to be in general agreement about the final candidate. They will present one candidate to the congregation for a “call.” This process could take up to a year. My hope is to be with you as Interim Pastor through most, if not all, of this process.

The search process in the United Church of Christ combines both employment issues and considerable spiritual discernment. The PSC is looking for a Pastor that they believe God desires for Immanuel Church. Part of the work of the PSC will be to spend time in prayer and Bible study, getting to know each other’s faith perspectives and developing trust among one another in this process.

The group has elected Bill Malkus and Jack Breil to serve as Co-Chairs, Susie Creighton as Chaplain (to guide prayer and scripture study for the group), and Leslie Tolley as Clerk (to direct electronic clergy profiles, keep records, communicate with candidates). Updates on the work of the Pastoral Search Committee will be included in our monthly Immanuel newsletters.

The group meets next on Friday evening, 6:00 pm, October 28, for dinner and then their meeting. Committee members include: Bill Malkus, Jack Breil, Leslie Tolley, Susie Creighton, Tammy Luthy, Scott Dodson, Marilyn Luthy and Keith Malkus Please keep these people, and the PSC process, in your prayers.

*In ministry with you,
Anne*

GUEST PREACHER TO LEAD WORSHIP ON NOVEMBER 13

We welcome David L. Kreek, a United Methodist Lay Minister, to be our guest preacher on Sunday, November 13. Prior to serving the St. Thomas Charge United Methodist Church as their Pastor from 2002-2009, David was a Baltimore County Police Officer for most of his career. His work has included leadership in the field of victim assistance and domestic violence, and also as a staff investigator for the Dorchester County State's Attorney's office. Now retired, he provides pulpit supply for area churches and also volunteers with the Cambridge Lions and local disaster relief services.

Our Spiritual Council will serve as liturgists for this service. Pastor Anne will be joining her family at the wedding of her nephew, Mark Swallow, in Pittsburg, PA and will enjoy "the view from the pew" during the marriage ceremony! She will leave town early Friday morning, November 11 and return late Sunday evening, November 13. In the event of a pastoral emergency during her absence, please call Congregation President, Philip Jackson at 410-228-7590.

NEW MEMBERS GATHERING SCHEDULED

Perhaps you have worshipped here at Immanuel for a while. Perhaps you are wondering how membership at Immanuel might help you to deepen your faith and strengthen your walk with Jesus. You are invited to join Pastor Anne and members of the Immanuel Church Council in a New Members Orientation Gathering.

We will meet Monday, November 14 at 7:00 pm and also on Sunday morning, November 20 at 8:30 am. Both gatherings will be held at church and will introduce you to life here at Immanuel, to the distinctiveness of our denomination and to how to become more involved in our congregation. Those desiring to join as Members will be welcomed into membership on Sunday, December 4.

Please speak with Pastor Anne if you are interested in learning more.

STEWARDSHIP CORNER

An Invitation to Make a Faith-Promise

At the October Church Council meeting, your Deacons presented a proposal designed to help us deepen the connections between our faith and our giving. The Deacons expressed their concern that our giving needs to come from the heart, as a response to God's work in our lives, and not just be in response to a need in the church. They suggested the possibility of having what is called a "Faith-Promise Sunday." This would provide an opportunity for members and friends to consider first what percentage of their income they feel God is calling them to give each year. Each household would be invited to make a "faith-promise," between themselves and God, concerning that estimated amount. Whether large or small, the amount is intended as a thank offering for God's love and blessings in our lives. No one else will know the amount of the pledge connected to that person's name.

The Council agreed that a letter will be sent to all members and friends on our current mailing list, encouraging them to prayerfully consider making a "faith-promise" to God regarding their giving to the church in 2012. Inside the letter will be a pledge card that will be divided in separate pieces, providing for the names of those pledging and their amounts to be kept separate. On Faith-Promise Sunday, there will be an opportunity for members and friends of the congregation to present their "faith-promise" pledges. We will put our names in one box and our pledges in another box.

Everything we own and everything we have comes from God. When we give, we simply offer God a very small portion of all the abundance God has already given to us. We hope that each member and friend of Immanuel will search their heart and decide what they can give. "Faith-Promise" cards will be received in worship on Sunday, November 20.

FELLOWSHIP AND COMMUNITY OUTREACH

ANNUAL MISSIONS BREAKFAST - November 6th!

Our Annual Missions Breakfast will be held on Sunday, November 6, 2011 at 8:30 a.m. A delicious breakfast, free of charge, is provided for all and will include Apple-Pecan French Toast, Egg Bake Casserole, Fresh Fruit and more!

This event is the primary fundraiser for our Special Benevolence Fund, which goes to help local people who are in need of financial assistance with rent, evictions, utilities, heat or food. Our speaker will be Valerie Nwakudo, who works for the Dorchester County Health Department and will speak with us about current social service needs in our community. Ms. Nwakudo, the mother of four young adult sons, is a member of Christ Episcopal Church here in Cambridge. She and Pastor Anne work together on the Emergency Cold Weather Shelter Committee.

Help support this essential outreach ministry to Dorchester County's most vulnerable. Jesus identified with the poor as those least ones who were also his brothers and sisters. He challenged his disciples and followers (us) to help them in their need for his sake and in his name: This is our mission mandate. Checks in support of the Special Benevolence Fund can be made to "Immanuel UCC" with "Special Benevolence" in the memo line. Gifts to this fund can be made at any time of the year. Thank you for your generosity.

(Robin Moore, Chair of the Missions Committee)

Let this November be "Thankful Month" with a Thank Offering to Hoffman Homes for Youth

For many years at Immanuel, the Women's Guild encouraged the collection of offerings for Hoffman Homes for Youth, located in Gettysburg, PA. This facility began as an orphanage in 1910, when the Hoffman family donated 193 acres of farm land to the United Church of Christ. Since 1990, Hoffman Home has been a residential psychiatric and educational program for emotionally and behaviorally troubled children (ages 6-18) and their families, and houses up to 141 children on their campus.

With our Women's Guild no longer meeting, Immanuel member, Beverly Shelly has helped greatly in this work by selling a quality selection of nuts, and adding the proceeds to our offerings. Nuts available are: Pecan Halves; Light Walnuts; Black Walnuts; Deluxe Mix; Cashews; Praline Pecans; Honey Roasted Peanuts and Whole Roasted Peanuts. Chocolate coated items are: Cashews; Almonds; Raisins; Peanuts; Pecan Clusters; Malted Milk Balls and Mint Melt-A-Ways. Also available: Almond Cranberry Granola, Gummy Bears and S'mores Mix. Beverly can be contacted during Coffee Hour on Sundays or call 410-228-4890 (Cecille's Beauty Salon, Inc.) or 410-228-7192 (home) to place your order.

You are invited to pick up a small cardboard "Thank Offering Box" at church during the month of November, and to place a few coins in the box each time you feel particularly thankful about something in your life. Pastor Anne will hand out boxes during the Children's Time in worship on October 30 and we will receive the offerings on the First Sunday of Advent, November 27. These offerings will be added to the proceeds from Bev's nut sales, and all will be sent to support the good work of Hoffman Homes for Youth.

COLD WEATHER EMERGENCY SHELTER PROGRAM

A Message from the Dorchester County Community Service Providers

This program of providing shelter for the homeless began seven years ago. We offer our services from December 1st through March 31st and will again be housed at the Wesleyan Church Hall on the corner of Race and Washington Streets in Cambridge.

With the continuing hardship of today's economic times, financial support is essential to fund an onsite monitor, provide food, paper products, laundry products, personal hygiene items and bedding.

In prior years, we made use of cots provided by the Emergency Management Services organization in the County. Those cots have served us well, but need to be replaced. We are in need of funds to secure new fold-away beds, mattress covers, pillows, blankets. Our 'Buy a Bed' campaign is underway. The total cost of a complete bed is $230. No contribution is too small, and we can use funds to purchase pillows ($5), mattress covers ($20) and blankets ($40) or the bed ($165). The shelter offers nightly accommodations with paid monitors and skilled volunteers overseeing the program each the night.

Financial contributions can be made by check to the Emergency Cold Weather Shelter Program and sent to the

Delmarva Community Action Center

Attn: Gloria Cornish

1000 Goodwill Ave

Cambridge, MD 21613

If you are interested in helping in any other capacity, please contact our co-chairs, Rev. Anne Swallow Gillis at 410-228-4640 or Rev. Mike Reddig at 410-228-3161

Immanuel Church has been generous in its support of the Shelter since the beginning, providing both food and funds for its operation. Costs run about $30,000 per year, which pays salary for a daily monitor on the site, supplies, utilities and a stipend to the sponsoring church. Part of our Mission Breakfast proceeds (November 6) go to support this work. Immanuel member, Frank Spillman, has again agreed to cook dinners and we have agreed to supply food on the second and fourth Thursday of each month of operation (December 1 – March 31). Pastor Anne will represent our congregation on the program board. Please speak with her or Frank, if you would like to help with cooking or delivery of the meals. Winter is a challenging time for those without permanent housing, and our county is one of the few that provides this kind of service.

HOLIDAY BAZAAR

The Holiday Bazaar, November 19th, is getting closer every day! Don't forget to check your holiday decorations to see if you have anything you would like to donate that is in good condition. We're again having a "silent auction" this year and donations are needed for this-- children's toys, hunting and holiday cooking. All items need to be delivered to the church by Monday, November 14th (9am to 1pm) so we can set-up our tables.

We will need helpers for the kitchen, bake table, country store and craft tables/silent auction--don't forget to sign up. We will also need baked goods for sale and we will have Sweet Potato Biscuits, plus lots of chicken salad and soups. Sign up sheets in Narthex.

BIBLE SUNDAY CELEBRATED

The following third graders (and older children who have not yet received a Bible from Immanuel) were given Bibles during our worship service on October 23: Jackson Bradley, Lorna Seymour, Amanda Bair, Taylor Middleton, Christie Foxwell, Jaden Kozak, Sabrina McKelvey, and Reagan Bradley. Our intention is that the Bible become a life-long source of inspiration and loving challenge in their daily lives. They received copies of the New Revised Standard Version, the translation we use each Sunday during worship. As our Congregation President, Philip Jackson, handed out the individual Bibles, we blessed each child with the words: "(Name), may the Lord bless you and keep you. May the word of God fill your home and your heart with power, peace, and promise. Amen."

Here at Immanuel Church we do not interpret the Bible literally, but we do take it seriously as a guide for life. It is filled with many stories that come from many sources; the narratives tell about our ancestors' life with God that go back over 5000 years. The Bible tells us about the life and teachings of Jesus, and inspires us with descriptions of how the Holy Spirit guided the early Christian Church. The Bible gives us a common language that we use in sharing our beliefs and God-perspectives with one another. The Bible is truly our "Family Book" and it is a joy to share and celebrate it.

THANK YOU!

Thanks to all those who bravely and enthusiastically shared your talents with us at last Sunday's Talent Show. You trusted us with a part of yourselves; we were not only entertained, but we got to know you a bit better. It also takes an audience to have a great event like that, so thanks to all of you who came and watched. Thank you to our organizers, Jean Haddaway, Robin Moore, Terry Malkus and Ruth Bradley, and also to John Moore for the excellent "MC" job. And how about that Miss Jean, burning it up on the saxophone, and our own heavy-metal band! Even during a fun, and sometimes silly, event like this, I believe we are truly building up the Body of Christ that is Immanuel Church. The Rev. Anne Swallow Gillis

THANK YOU (CONTINUED)

THE JACKSON BRADLEY FAMILY (Jennifer and Brian Burton) would like to thank everyone for their generous donations to help defray costs associated with Jackson's cancer treatment. Jackson is quite fatigued from his chemo-therapy, and is cutting down to 1/2 day of school. The family is offering a paid position for someone to stay with Jackson at their home in the afternoons, three days a week, after picking him up from school. The hours are 11:30 am (pick-up) to 5:00 pm, on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday or Friday (your choice). Please contact Jennifer at 410-924-3780 if you are interested.

The OKTOBERFEST dinner held Saturday, October 22, was well attended. Our Corporate sponsors this year guaranteed our success. They were Tri Gas & Oil; Bank of the Eastern Shore; Curran-Bromwell Funeral Home P.A.; National Bank of Cambridge; Cecille's Beauty Salon, Inc.; Emily's Produce; Haddaway Service; Powerhouse Gym; Atlantic Tractor; Talbot Bank; Rob Davis CPA; Fairfield Farms; Dr. William E. Bair; Bay Country Communications; M&N Trailer Storage, Inc.; Aero Energy; Blackwater Farms; and Thomas Funeral Home P.A. We encourage our church family to support these sponsors whenever possible.

We appreciate the wonderful job EVERYBODY did---our superior kitchen help, the superb desserts, table staff, etc... There are so many more things we should say THANK YOU for, but time and space wouldn't allow it.

As people were leaving there were many comments made about how wonderful the food and desserts were and how beautifully everything was decorated. We wish to thank EVERYONE for the success of Immanuel UCC's Oktoberfest dinner.

FAMILY OF ONE OF IMMANUEL'S FOUNDERS COME TO VISIT:

In early October, we had a visit from Dee Asmunssen, resident of Salisbury, and some of her family members. Her grand-father was Asmus Asmunssen, one of the original fourteen founders of Immanuel Church. Mr. Asmunssen, whose name appears on the brass plaque in our Narthex, had immigrated from Wallsbull, Denmark to Kansas in 1883. He finally settled in Cambridge in 1893 out on Maple Dam Road. His grand-daughter said that while originally Danish speaking, he also was fluent in French, Latin and German.

Charles Asmunssen, Jim Wolf and other family members did crayon rubbings of the two cornerstones from our previous church buildings, "Deutsche Evangelische Emanuel's Kirghe 1898" and "Immanuel's Evangelical Church 1894-1925." They enjoyed walking through the Sanctuary and commented on how wonderfully the designers incorporated elements of the Peachblossom church into the present design.

Thanks be to God for the life of Asmus Asmunssen!

LOOKING AHEAD

EVENT PLANNING FOR 2012

If you are serving on a committee at Immanuel church, please plan to attend our Event Planning for 2012 on Sunday, November 6th following worship. All committees need to be present for this planning session in order to assure we do not have several events scheduled for the same day.

CONGREGATIONAL MEETING

Sunday, November 20th, immediately following worship, a congregational meeting will be held during which we will be electing the President of the Congregation for 2012 and presenting and approving the 2012 budget.

WE WELCOME A NEW NAR-ANON GROUP TO IMMANUEL

At the request of several Immanuel Church members, our Church Council has approved the creation of a monthly Nar-Anon meeting here in our facilities. Nar-Anon is a twelve-step program (similar to Alcoholics Anonymous and Al-Anon) designed to help relatives and friends of addicts recover from the effects of living with an addicted relative or friend. The group will meet on the first Wednesday of each month, in the Sofa Room at church, beginning November 5 at 7:00 pm. Contact Patti Cannon (410) 228-7370 for more information.

COMMUNITY THANKSGIVING SERVICE

Our community Thanksgiving Service will be held at Seventh Day Adventist Church, Cambridge, MD on Tuesday, November 22nd. Choir members will meet at 6:00 p.m. at the church and worship service will begin at 7:00 p.m.

Directions: take Bonnie Brook Road off Route 50 and make the first right.

ADVENT

We will celebrate our traditional Family Christmas Lunch on December 4th immediately following worship. Look for more details in our November newsletter.

FAMILY WATERFOWL HUNT

This event will be a spiritual and family based waterfowl hunt based on a similar event that takes place in Easton each winter. The concept is to sponsor an affordable waterfowl hunt for families on donated properties throughout Dorchester County. We are planning for Saturday, January 7, 2012. Volunteers are needed for various duties, including registering our hunters and getting them on their way.
